RUMORS OF TRADE OF "BABE" RUTH ARE DENIED EMPHATICALLY BY OFFICIALS

Cleveland, O., July 10.—A deal which would transfer Babs Ruth to the Whits Sax is pending, according to a story published here today by the Cleveland News.

The story, which came from New York sources, states that in return for Ruth.

sources, states that in return for Ruth, Aaron Ward and either Waite Hoyt or Carl Mays, the Chicago chib will send to the Yankees Eddie Collins, Amos Strunk and another White Sox player. A big sum of money will also be paid to New York. Weight is added to the report, the story states, by the continued conferences with New York owners of Harry Grabiner, business manager of the White Sox. Yankee Officials Make Firm Denial. New York, July 10 .- Officials of the New York, July 16.—Officials of the New York American league baseball club today denied emphatically that there was the slightest possibility of a trade which would involve Babe Ruth, Waite Hoyt, Carl Mays and Aaron Ward, or any of these players, in exchange for cash and Eddie Collins, Amos Strunk and an un-named player of the Chicago Americans.

Business Manager Edurad Carlot the Yankees stated: "This is the first inking I have heard of the silly rumor. It can be denied in toto and in any other way possible in print."

Gleason in Dark as to Deal. Philadelphia, July 10.—Manager Glea-son of the Chicago White Sox said today he knew of no such deal as reported from Cleveland. He said that Harry Grabiner, secretary of the club, has made a kip east and was due in Chicago today. Whether he transacted any business with the New York club, Gleason said he did not know. If there has been a such deal, Gleason added, it would be announced by President Comiskey.

Not Interested in Buth, Says Grabiner. Chago, July 10.—"We are not interested in any trade for Ruth," said Harry Grabiner, business manager of the Chicago White Sox, today when shown the despatch from Cleveland which said the White Sox were negotiating for the famous home run hitter.

"We are satisfied with our clue, and named player of the Chicago Americans.

Manager Miller Huggins stated that such a trade was "ridiculous on its face" and that no conferences had been had with Business Manager Grabiner of the Chicago club. "Grabiner was in this city the other day," said Huggins, "and we no trades are pending," Grabiner added.

Mitchell of England, with another 144, and Joe Kirkwood, the Australian chamsion, with 146, followed along behind

The other qualifiers ranged up to 152. .573 The low 24 were to qualify, but they .519 made it 37. Following are the names and scores of the 27 players who qualified today from a field of 108 for the final in the national
